LIVING HELL OF CHILD LABOR IN SOUTH, TOLD OF BY EXPERT VISITOR

Suggestion of an International Commission to Adjudicate Claims Presented.

the in the situation is the proposed production by Carranza of the financial obligations incurred by the Huertista regime. Since that administration was not recognized as legal by the United States, every effort will be exerted by them to maintain the validity of the claims of their subjects.

Carranza has given notice of the intention to refer the claims to arbitration.
There is some confidence in diplomatic circles here that he will not care to sustain the disapproval of Europe at the expense of his administration.
It is being suggested that a national commission to adjudicate such claims will be formed. The powers of the government have withhold recognition until the claims are assuredances as to how such claims are to be handled.

The Spanish government is already active in seeking to have restored the property of those subjects driven out of Mexico by the Huertista administration.
The United States has been invited to a conference with Secretary Bryan today. Later Minister Niox of Argentina also discussed Mexico with

Waco, Tex., July 17.—Ted H. Hays, manager of the Waco, Tex., hotel, was so seriously injured that he probably died, in an automobile accident early this morning on South Main street, two miles on the outside of the city. All of the nine passengers occupying the two cars involved in the accident were hurt and five are still in the hospital. Illinois Hines, a Victoria chauffeur is suffering from fractured skull and is still unconscious. All are expected to recover except Hines. Houston's car was apparently on the wrong side of the road and the motor car was driven to a great speed. Ham Barnett, driver for a Chelsea, Mass., firm, afforded a broken tire and a scamp wound while Harold Wolff, an hotel proprietor, suffered a broken knee cap.

New Haven, July 17. — Miss Elizabeth Watson, well-known investigator, who went South to gather the most conclusive inside evidence of the true conditions of the laboring classes, is now in the city supporting the Palmer-Owen bill, and who was selected by the Child Welfare League to be the chief witness at the hearing given to the opponent of the bill by the Labor Committee of the House, says:

"The bill is designed to make the Interstate Commerce Commission regulate the conditions of interstate trade in goods produced by the labor of children under fourteen years, or of women who are employed more than eight hours a day, should be passed."

"The Labor Committee of the House will see the necessity to report this bill out as soon as possible, and will support it, and every Senator will want to support it, so that these children of the South and women who are some of the privileges of childhood."

Miss Watson worked among the immigrants for five or six years, and was the first woman to arrive at the truth about the conditions which affect these unfortunate women and children.

"The conditions are appalling," continued Miss Watson. "I spent my

BLIND PIGGERS PAY HEAVILY TO THE EXCHEQUER

CONVICTIONS FOR SALE TO MINERS AT CARDIFF

"French Alice," Well Known Character, is Convicted and Fined $100 and Costs.

On the principle that it is unfair to allow blind piggers to make money by selling liquor illegally, thus escaping the fees charged to regularly licensed vendors of liquor, the license branch of the attorney-general's department is doing all in its power to make the blind piggers contribute heavily to the revenues of the province, especially in view of the fact that a staff of detectives has to be employed by the department to check the illicit sale of liquor.

The fines have been pooled into a fund to be used for the next few days. A number of men from the department have been up at Ground during the past two or three weeks and have succeeded in obtaining a number of convictions.

F. G. Foster, chief license inspector, returned from the south this morning and reports a large number of convictions. At Bankhead, near Hamfist, he obtained a conviction of a man known to P. S. assistant commissioner, and the police, and was fined $150 on two charges of selling liquor illegally and keeping liquor for sale. Five prosecutions were undertaken at each of the other places obtained. At each of these places, Constable Mosier, was fined $100 and costs for keeping liquor for sale. Mike Milutin was fined $250 and costs and Jack Mikulin $200 and costs, Charley Zimna, $100 and costs, and Mike Zimna, $100 and costs for selling liquor without a license.

Two men have this week been working in the neighborhood of the Cardiff mines, near St. Albert, and were successful in obtaining convictions against Paul Simura, fined $100 and costs and Nellie Baxter, $100 and costs for selling liquor without a license. These cases were tried before William MacDonald, J.D. of Morinville.

Before Inspector Jennings in the city. Alice Hugo, well known as "Frenchy Allie," was fined $100 and costs. At Wetaskiwin four convictions were contained against restaurant keepers and fines amounting to $400 were imposed.

At the meeting of the city commissioners this morning, Commissioner B. J. Saunders recommended that an agreement which was entered into with

The Hudson's Bay company, concerning the paving of Portage avenue from 101st to 121st street, and that portion between 101st street and the junction of the Portage and the Noorwood boulevards, be carried into effect. Under the agreement with the Hudson's Bay company the work was to be done at the expense of the Hudson's Bay company, under the supervision of the city, except extra work involved by street widening. It was estimated that the structure will aggregate 11,840 square yards and the work will include 4,540 lineal feet of sidewalk 12 inches wide. The Commission has recommended that the contract for the work be given to Swanston and Kallne, recommended by the Hudson's Bay company. Re-

AUTUMN SESSION OF PARLIAMENT IS GOING TO BE HELD

Prime Minister Makes Announcement in the House of Commons—Date is Fixed Provisionally for the Last Week in November or the First Week in December.

London, July 17. The prime minister announced in the house of commons today that the government had decided to hold an autumn session of parliament, and fixed the date provisionally for the last week in November or the beginning of December.

The cabinet today held the third meeting of the year, and discussed the Irish situation and the allocation of business for the remainder of the session.

Mr. Asquith, much to the chagrin of the opposition, refrained from any reference to the lines along which he proposed to conduct the government's policy in the coming session, and the Irish problem when the house of lords amendments came up before the commons at the beginning of the week.

The press in general are indulgent in a great amount of guessing as to the government's policy, but the cabinet members, even the liberal back-benchers, confess that they are entirely ignorant of the policy of the government, and that the whole business is as uncertain as ever.

The government are assailed by a variety of groups, and even threatened from the nationalist leaders and the labor party. It is also felt among the commons that the government have better ended matters by some final statement this afternoon of how they propose to deal with the situation, and that the danger introduced by the lords

EMPLOYEES OF 98 WESTERN RAILWAYS REFUSE MEDIATION

Serious Situation is Reached in Differences Between Engineers and Firemen and the Railroad Managers—Workers claim that Heads of Roads Have Refused to Carry Out Awards Made by Federal Boards in Other Instances—Allegation Repudiated by Managers

Chicago, July 17.—Federal mediation of the wage differences between the engineers and firemen and the management of 58 western railroads was asked today by the railroad managers' conference committee. Formal notification of the conference committee, engineers' and firemen's unions in a letter from the managers' committee.

The employees, through their leaders, have refused to accept the offer to refuse federal arbitration on the contention that the railroad companies are not in a position to make any concession in their wages, as urged by the federal board in other instances.

The statement that the unions would decline to enter into arbitration came in the wake of the result of the strike vote became known.

Denial that the railroads had not carried out arbitration awards was made in a letter from the managers' communication today to the employees' representative.

The refusal of the unions to join in asking federal aid to adjust the differences was considered by the railroad managers before the present communication was sent.

The letter of the managers' denying arbitration was sent and failed to observe the terms of awards in federal arbitration cases, said—

"We, the unions, parties to these regulations which we represent, we deny for them and for each of them that they have either refused or failed to accept the arbitration award, and to which they and your organization or other organizations have participated and we respectfully request you to take this instance in support of your charge.

"We have on this date filed with this board a request for a formal conciliation a request invoking the services of the board in accordance with the act of congress approved July 17, 1914, and we request an adjustment of our differences."

The letter was signed by A. W. Trenholm, chairman of the conference committee.

FLEMMING HEARD AT INQUIRY INTO TIMBER CHARGES

Asked Questions to Show How the Province Had Been Affected by Policy.

HE TELLS HOW HE GOT SOME SHARES OF STOCK

When Pressed, he Finally Admits That Timber Worth More Now than Before.

ST. JOHN'S N. B., July 17.—Continuing his examination of Premier Fleming in the inquiry into the timber charges today, Mr. G. Tread K. asked questions calculated to show how the province had been affected by the fluctuations in the lumber policy. The increase of stumpage on cedar, fir, hemlock, and hardwood increased the revenue by $75,000 a year. Mr. Fleming said that the province had not been had the five shares of stock in the Maine and New Brunswick Lumber Co. and the Eastern Lumber Co. Eastern Securities company, the premier explained. "Did you pay my own share?" he asked. "No," he replied. "So that I am not liable for the $250,000 of the Scotia at Fredericton, giving it my own note in part and a note endorsed by a friend for the balance?" "No," he replied. "Is the liability 'I have paid it with the exception of a small amount still unpaid on the five shares of stock?" "Yes," he replied for the five shares of old stock. "I paid for the five shares of new stock, and the five shares by draft made by the treasurer on me on 30 days. I sold the stock for $100,000 and I had a due, I think."

The premier had first heard of Brankley, original treasurer of the province, from a Mr. Briggs, who had said that Brankley would be acting for the lumbermen. Asked today what

Real Estate Exchanges Learn Edmonton Sets Pace for Whole Continent

W. J. McGRATH TALKS IN OPTIMISTIC VEIN

Given Warm Welcome by Pittsburgers After Doings at Ad Convention.

That the visit of 230 Edmontonians to the International advertising convention at Toronto last month, with the dozens of visits of groups and individual members of the party to other cities and towns of the east and middle west, will result in the greatest and most valuable publicity that Edmonton city and district have ever secured in the same length of time, is the belief of W. J. Magrath, president of the Edmonton Industrial association, under whose auspices the big Toronto trip was made via special train.

After the ad convention was over, Mr. Magrath visited Belleville, Ont., his former home, Ottawa and other places, including Pittsburg, where the national convention of real estate exchanges was held, Mr. Magrath and L. L.

The fact that Edmontons took the prize for having the largest number of ladies at the Toronto meeting resulted in a great deal of comment throughout the whole continent, and when Mr. Magrath stepped off the train at Pittsburg he was received with open arms. Everybody wanted to know about Edmontons.

that this city had grown at a faster rate during the last 10 years than any other represented at the realty convention, however, their curiosity quickly changed to genuine interest and admiration, and more than one told Mr. Magrath that they would visit the city this fall, while scores made up their minds on the spot to either go to, or come back from, the "Frisco exposition" next year.

What this will mean to the city and to the district may be better judged when it is stated that practically all who attended the Pittsburg convention were wealthy and many of them millionaires. Some money lenders in the east told Mr. Magrath that they were loaning money at five per cent., and, if conditions were as good as they

"Things seem to take a long time to pick up in the east," stated the president of the Industrial association, "but many of the big manufacturers told me that within the last few weeks especially everybody was apparently getting optimistic. The crops in most places are excellent, but none more so than in the Edmonton district. The large industries, more particularly the steel industry, of which Pittsburg is the center, is beginning to feel the effects of a probably a better barometer of trade conditions than the steel industry." Mr. Magrath was glad to be back in the city, which he said was surer now than ever was the best city on the continent. He is particularly pleased with the developments in connection with the war, and the economic situation here, and is ready to continue the work of progress of the Industrial Union association, of which he is the head.

Mr. Magrath said that he had been pleased to participate with himself for a participation on the International executive, and the fact that Mr. Wolf was third in the contest shows the manner in which the great assembly of business men of the world in the Education candidate the first year the city was represented.

LONDON INSPECTOR
GUILTY OF LIBELING
SIR EDWARD HENRY

London, July 17.—Ex-Inspector of Police Syme, who has been on trial for criminally libelling the London police commissioner, Sir Edward Henry, has been found guilty and sentenced to eight months' imprisonment.

Syme had charged by pamphlets and addresses to public meetings that Sir Edward condoned and encouraged perjury, blackmail and tyranny of superior officers over subordinates of his force and the manufacturing of false charges.

The attorney-general informed the court that Syme was bound over in 1910 for writing a letter to the prime minister, threatening to make an attack in public on the king, and was also convicted and sentenced to six months' imprisonment for sending a letter threatening to kill subdivisional inspector Reed. The attorney-general said further that, although the published libels were serious, they were nothing to the sort of thing the defendant had been saying at public meetings, where he had called Sir Charles Trevelyan a scoundrel, a pervert and most disgraceful scoundrel."

CANADIAN INQUIRY PRINCIPAL MATTER FOR CONSIDERATION

London, July 17.—The majority of the members of the Dominion Royal Commission set today for Canada including Sir Rider Haggard, and the South African, Australian and New Zealand representatives. Sir Edgar Vincent, now Lord Dabernon, goes later. The greatest significance is being attached to the Canadian inquiry as one of the principal matters the commission intends thoroughly to thresh out is the question of freight rates. Imposition of a 5 per cent. duty on goods also on the agenda and it is stated that the commissioners are hopeful of forming a scheme of co-operation between Canada and Great Britain, by which two British cables may be leased in the Atlantic.

Doctor's Boyish Face Reveals Skin Renewer

I heard the other day the story of the physician with an admirable skin that all his young patients said his secret, said one, who had recently been told, that knowing the remarkable shortness of property of ordinary medicine, he had concluded this substance would make an excellent complexion renewer and restorer. Knowing the fact that the doctor was a boyish face, I was naturally led to believe that the old, weathered, lined face of the doctor was being gradually altered and replaced by younger, healthier skin. This was the case, for the doctor's face was being gradually altered and replaced by the boyish face, which is the result of the use of the skin renewer. The doctor was a boyish face, and the skin renewer was the secret of his youthfulness. The doctor was a boyish face, and the skin renewer was the secret of his youthfulness. The doctor was a boyish face, and the skin renewer was the secret of his youthfulness.

Theatres and Picture Shows

MRS. PANKHURST IS ADDED ATTRACTION FOR THE PANTAGES

A rattling good bill comes to Pantages next week and, like this week's show, nothing more could be desired in either quality or variety.

"Night Hawks," a comedy drama of life's seamy side, is the headliner and is sure to please Edmonton theatre-goers. This sketch has been the rage all the big vaudeville circuits in the east and every metropolitan daily has endorsed it in unqualified terms of praise. The New York Sun describes it as a "vivid playlet" and it is vivid and sensational, but all the objectionable features of the underworld are left out. The leading parts will be taken by Rex Adams and Ethel Adams, both well known players and who were chosen for their parts due to their wonderful resemblance to type. The sketch was written by K. K. Friedman, a well known newspaper man and who is known to Edmontonians by his short animal acts on the stage.

Two kind of music Pantages patrons like will be supplied by Rosella and Rosella, the character musicians. They bring with them a repertoire of classical music to render on their harps and violins which will surely satisfy Dave Woods' animal actors and the kiddies and furthermore it is one of the best animal acts on the road. There will be quite a number of the stars, almost every animal from a dog to a monkey will be seen. Part of the fun will come when Paffrey, Barton and Brown make their appearance. The trio are masters of mirth and they will be seen in comedy bits of vaudeville which includes everything from clowning to dancing. The real laughs will be produced by the well-known black-face comedians, Quinlan and Richards of minstrel fame. Quinlan and Richards are possibly the two clearest men on their kind in the stage and they will present a breezy act entitled "The Quack Benoit." This is a better variation than the one on the mountains and the feature of the act is that it contains nothing that is in the least objectionable. The additional attraction is Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst, in a four reel motion picture, which will conclude the performance.

LYCEUM TO ENTERTAIN SCORES OF EMPLOYES FROM HUDSON'S BAY

ONCE SOCIETY LEADER NOW CIRCUS ELEPHANT TRAINER COMING HERE

Does marriage change a person? Well, just by way of illustration, there's the case of Zora, who is known as the "bravest woman in the world." She was once a time Zora was a society woman with no thought of the circus. But when she appears in this city next week, she will come as a society woman. Buffalo Bill himself, who is to exhibit here Wednesday and Thursday of next week, will come as a society woman. ### LOCAL CADETS SEEN IN MOTION PICTURES AT EMPRESS THEATER

Home industry can be found in abundance in the program for the Empress theatre for Friday and Saturday. The pictures of the local cadets at their camp last Sunday have been taken by P. Rogers, a local photographer, and will exhibit only at the Empress the last two days this week. Mr. Rogers has demonstrated that motion pictures can be taken as successfully in Edmonton as in New York or San Francisco, and the photography is well up to the standard.

AMATEUR PERFORMANCE AND LADIES' CONTEST AT BIJOU THEATRE

The weekly amateur performance and a novel ladies' nail driving contest will be the principal features of the Biou theatre program for Friday and Saturday. The first named is gaining in popularity every week with the Biou patrons, while the latter is a new feature for this playhouse house, the fact that three ladies have entered their names as contestants already in the ladies' nail driving contest is evidence that the contest is popular. The first named is gaining in popularity every week with the Biou patrons, while the latter is a new feature for this playhouse house.

DEFENDS METHOD USED DISPOSING OF DEBENTURES

S. A. G. Barnes Makes Statement Relating to Handling of 1914 Bonds.

GOT HIGHER PRICE FOR BONDS IN NEW YORK

Has Made and Saved Thousands of Dollars by Selling on Other Markets.

S. A. G. Barnes, chairman of the finance committee of the Edmonton school board, defended the method used in disposing of school debentures, at the meeting of the board last night. Mr. Barnes' defence came as a result of a communication from D. R. Wilkie, general manager of the Imperial bank of Canada, as read by the mayor. Mr. Barnes stated that although the Imperial bank were very anxious to secure the debentures as they had been in the habit of doing, and made three offers on succeeding days, though Mr. Wilkie, the bank's representative, was able to secure a higher price for them in another market on most satisfactory terms and thus relieving the city of the selling of $400,000 worth of debentures for all time to come.

On Thursday, July 9th, the policy of the Edmonton school board relative to its 1914 debenture issue was open to criticism in the public press in the form of a published letter reported to be written by Mr. D. R. Wilkie, general manager of the Imperial Bank. This being the bank which we do our banking business, I regret very much that I am forced to make a public statement in defence of our action.

In what manner did the board find itself in 1914? In order to place our books last year we had to agree with its purchasers that we would give them the first opportunity of offering a price for our 1914 debenture issue. While carrying out this agreement, we received a number of voluntary offers from other firms, among them the Imperial bank of Canada. True, we had a letter from the mayor asking that we should consider the proposed method of sale of our debentures, but the department of education, a representative asking us to allow them to sell our debenture through their newly-formed debenture department, but they gave us no definite offer.

As for cooperation with the city in this matter, it may be an ideal policy under certain conditions, but last year I am sorry to state, we had to threaten suit against the city before we secured our regular assessment due us from 1912 part of which money goes to pay debenture indebtedness. The situation created last session makes it impossible for the city to act as our agents if so desired by the school board. This is not in exact harmony with similar arrangements in other cities. When we considered past experience, and particularly present financial conditions, we thought it better to "sway horses while crossing the stream," and decided to adhere to the past policy and accept the higher offer received, especially when our highest bidder was placing the bonds in the New York market. This would be to effect Mr. Wilkie's London friends, but would overcome the competition complained of in his letter.

Further I might state that Mr. Wilkie made three definite offers for our bonds on three successive days, each time raising his quotation, but the offer received was considerably higher than the last and final offer made by the Imperial Bank.

In conclusion I might say that I cannot think it is desirable to have the school board's bankers act as their bank in a dual position, which is not good business.

There was little other business on the program. The contract for heating the Butterfield school addition was awarded to Bowcott, Dean & Roberts, the figure being $21,277.60.

A report read by George P. Jackson, supervisor of playgrounds showed that there were 200 children making use of the new McKay avenue school playground, and 400 and over using the grounds at the King Edward school, and also that there were over 100 children using the shower baths at the King Edward school. Mr. Jackson made a statement of that fact that all children whether attending school or not are welcome and at the heart to make use of the playgrounds, and concluded by telling the board of what apparatus the playgrounds now have.

A. Perin, secretary of the trustees of the council, asked that in future the existing in and about the schools be attended to by members of the board's staff and not by the caretakers of the schools as is done at times.

MAROONED HINDUS DEMAND HAIR TONIC AND TOOTH BRUSHES

Vancouver, July 17.—At a late hour last night a peculiar request was received from the Hindus on the Komata Maru. The Hindus were anxious to obtain a quantity of hair oil and a cross of tooth brushes and incidentally mentioned that they wanted them quickly. The request was not complied with.

There were big and noisy dolges on board the vessel last night, judging by the sounds that floated across the waters. No information could be obtained as to the real nature of the proceeding but it is believed to have something to do with rumors that have been circulating around the city. These rumors are nothing more or less than that there is being hatched a plot against the life of immigration Superintendent Reid. Whatever truth there is in the rumor, the fact remains that an increasing number of threatening letters have been received by him and that the guard on his private residence has been doubled.

IRISH AMERICANS OF GOTHAM SUBSCRIBE TO VOLUNTEER FUND

New York, July 17.—Irish-Americans and friends of Ireland from all parts of the United States and Canada attended a meeting of the national directors of the United Irish league of America, here yesterday at which $100,000 was subscribed for the Irish volunteer fund for use in the movement led by John Redmond in the Irish parliamentary party, it was announced.

A cable message was sent to Mr. Redmond notifying him of the subscription and that $10,000 of the amount would be forwarded immediately by the national treasurer of the league.

Philadelphia was selected as place for holding the next national convention, the date to be fixed by Mr. Redmond, who will come from Ireland to attend the gathering, and in the message sent to Mr. Redmond he was asked to fix the date of his coming.

An address to the people of the United States urging support of the Irish volunteers was adopted.

FIRE CHIEF ASKS FOR INCREASE SALARY SCHEDULE

Requests Advances All Along the Line for Employees of His Department.

SEEKS THREE HUNDRED MORE FOR HIMSELF

Bases Demand on Increased Duties Work on Sundays and All Legal Holidays.

In a communication addressed to the city commissioners and read before that body this morning, Fire Chief G. G. Lander makes formal request for an increase of his salary from $12,000 to $12,500 per year, and for a material increase in the salaries of captains and chauffeurs. The communication follows:

"Edmonton, July 15, 1914. 'To the commissioners, gentlemen: I would request that the salary schedule for captains be revised, the same to run from $95 to $125 instead of $85 to $110, and chauffeurs' salaries run from $85 to $110 instead of from $75 to $100, according to service. In June, 1913 I promised two senior captains to the position of first and second assistant chiefs and they are only receiving the maximum salary of captain on them. I would request that my salary be increased from $110 to $125, owing to increased duties devolving on them. I would request that my salary be increased from $3,000 to $3,500 per year on account of my departmental duties being increased and much added responsibility attached. I wish to call to your attention that there have been no increases granted to the department since July 1, 1912. I also wish to call your attention to the long hours I and members of this department are on duty. We have no Sundays, public holidays or Saturday afternoons off. To keep good officers and men it is necessary that they receive increases accordingly for good services. Respectfully submitted,

"G. G. Lander, chief of Fire Dept."

The commissioners laid the matter on the table. There is an understanding of sentiment that no increases of salaries will be allowed this year.

FAITHFUL OLD HORSES WILL BE RECOGNIZED AT MIDSUMMER FAIR

"There's no friend like an old friend," is the contention of the Edmonton humane society, which accorded an effort to raise this feeling in the community.

The horse who has been a faithful friend through many a hard day's work is often neglected and despised when age creeps on, and is unable to draw as heavy a load as in his younger days. Oftentimes he is not only neglected but ill-treated.

With this in mind, the Humane society has afforded a handsome gold medal for the best aged horse, to be competed for at the midsummer exhibition. Horses eligible for this class must be over 15 years old, and the competition will not only be a test of the good qualities of the horse, but will be a faithful representation of the character of the owner.

The prize will be awarded to the horse showing evidence of the best care and attention.

RADIUM IS ABANDONED BY LONDON DOCTORS IN CANCER TREATMENT

Berlin, July 17.—Germany's greatest surgery specialists have abandoned the use of radium for the treatment of cancer and are now continuing the use of cancer by the Roentgen rays.

Among them is Prof. Bumm, director of the cancer clinic of the university of Berlin, who has just presented a number of women cured by the Roentgen rays. The surgeon-general of the university here, is another who has abandoned faith in radium.

The surgeons say patients are treated with apparent success by radium and discharged as either improved or cured, but shortly afterwards they reveal evidences of a return of the disease in other parts of the body.

POULTRY TO BE OUT IN FULL FORCE FOR EDMONTON EXHIBITION

If representatives of all the classes for poultry, ducks, geese, and turkeys, included in the prize list for the 1914 Edmonton exhibition, raise their voices in one grand chorus of crow, cackle, quack and gobble, they will produce a volume of sound heard the power of ordinary pen to describe. Only a quill could do it justice.

From the slender Bantam to the clumsy Brahmas and Cochons, all will be there. Wyandottes, gold-laced and silver spangled, suggest days of old when men wore ruffles, laced waistcoats, and ordered pistols for their pocket.

Spanish, white face black, and Games black red, present somewhat of a strange anomaly.

The "little hen" of nursery fame will be there too, under the name of plums of Rhode Island Red. She is neither spaniel, poodle, bearded, or mottled—just plain red.

Now that Edmonton has its own humane society, the display of pigeons and other birds and the 22 classes will be keenly contested. Among the pious are Dragons and Archangels, Jackbats, Nuns, Owls, Swallows, Trumpeters, Fantails and Homers, and this exhibit promises to be exceedingly attractive.

The ornamental birds include different varieties of pheasants, and peacocks. Ten classes have been arranged for rabbits.

To the exhibitor from the province of Alberta winning the largest number of prizes in the department of poultry and pet stock, at the Edmonton exhibition, the A. B. Potter company will award a silver cup valued at $100.

German swan company is offering special prizes for turkeys, ducks, and cockerels, exhibited by Alberta farmers.

It should be born in mind that all entries close on July 27. Prize lists may be obtained by application to W. F. Mack, manager, Edmonton.

TWO DROWNED WHEN CANOE UPSETS NEAR PETERBORO, ONTARIO

Peterboro, Ont., July 17.—Late yesterday afternoon Austin O'Toole, aged 17 years and Charles Burgoynne, of this city, aged 24 years, were drowned in the river a few miles below the city. The two young men and another, named Fowler, were rocking a canoe when it upset. Fowler swam to shore, 25 yards, supposing that the others who were good swimmers, were following, but when he looked back he saw only the upturned canoe and no trace of the young men. Both bodies were recovered.

JAMES GORDON'S DEATH FOLLOWS TAKING POISON

There will be no inquest in the case of James Gordon, who died yesterday as the result of taking poison, as the belief that Gordon took the poison accidentally. The facts of the case are that the deceased was in the habit of getting drunk and was just getting over a three weeks spell and was his habit on such occasions, wanted something strong to drink such as vinegar, and was known to have taken that fluid before, and it was in mistake of this or something else that Gordon must have taken the poison which was arsenic, a poison twice as strong as carbolic acid. Gordon's death was not a case of suicide.

The accident happened at 410 in the morning and Gordon rushed up stairs and told his wife of his mistake in what he had taken. His wife managed to get a glass of milk down his throat, but Gordon was soon unconscious and remained so until he died some two hours afterward. He lived at 214 McCowen street and has been a resident of the city for eight years. Eight children and a wife survive him. He was a player by trade and originally came from Nova Scotia.

New Yorkers will shortly demolish the solid old Herald square theater.

UNSATISFACTORY ENDING SMITH-CARPENTIER BOUT COMES IN THE SIXTH ROUND

Frenchman Alleged to Have Been Fouled by Being Struck While Down and Was Awarded Decision—13,000 People Present But Got Poor Run for Their Money.

London, July 17.—Georges Carpentier, the young French champion and the only pugilist of premier rank France has ever contributed to the game, was awarded the decision last night over "Gumbo" Smith, the American fighter, on foul, in the sixth round of the fastest, heavyweight fight Londoners have seen in many years.

At a quarter to ten, Eugene Corri, the referee, stepped into the ring and was introduced. He was followed by Dick Hurge, Frank Moran and others. Carpentier then entered the ring in a black silk gown and said cheering. Carpentier was kept waiting in his corner while Matt Wells and other fighters were introduced. Bombardier Wells was given a great reception when it was announced he would challenge the winner. Smith appeared in the ring at 5:58. Cheering for Smith hardly equaled that given to the Frenchman.

The first preliminary ended in a knockout in the second round. The next bout was a slugging match in which Tom Leary lost his temper and pushed the referee to the floor. Then Blake knocked him out forthwith and another pair of time-killers were presented to lead up to the French-American event.

At the ring-side the American contingent was betting freely at 5 to 1 on Smith.

Finish Was a Tragedy
The match between the two heavyweights was fought at Olympia and was scheduled to go 20 rounds. To Smith and his supporters the finish was a tragedy, because the blow for which the American was disqualified was neither studied nor intended. It was launched in the heat of the whirling fighting when the Frenchman had slipped to his knees, and the spectators saw the giant sailor recoil and attempt to draw back almost as his arm flew out.

Nevertheless, the ending of the fight adds another to the unfortunate chain-

SMITH THE STRONGER

In the first round it seemed as if the American's superior strength would tell, but through the next three rounds the Frenchman let himself out and showed power behind his blows apparently equal to the American's and with greater swiftness. He landed a number of telling blows on the face and body with both hands, and sent Smith down in a heap with a right to the kidneys in the fourth round. The American was willing to gain time, getting to his feet only after six seconds, just as the bell ended the round.

Between 12 and 13 thousand persons witnessed the fight, among them, 500 women. Probably another such assembly, representing all classes in the Empire, many French enthusiasts and American travelers, has never gathered at a prize ring.

Highway Robbery
James Buckley, Smith's manager, said after the fight:

"It was highway robbery. Smith knocked Carpentier out with a right on the point of the jaw. The Frenchman went down and Smith, in making another punch, could not pull himself back and just hit Carpentier's head. After the first two punches I saw that we were going to get the worst of it, although they were up all the time. He wanted to bother Smith."

"We have confirmed that this was intention and that he wanted Carpentier to win."

Smith confirmed this statement, but would add nothing to it. Smith has issued a challenge to fight Carpentier again within two weeks or at any other time.

Eugene Corri, the referee, is quoted by the Daily Mail as saying he had no alternative but to disqualify Smith. In his opinion, however, Smith was the stronger man of the two at the time and "might well have won the fight."

Says Was Knocked Out
Dick Hurge, the fight promoter, said:

"I think the blow which brought Carpentier to his knees was a mistake. It was a foul, and the blow which caused Smith's disqualification merely glanced off the back of Carpentier's head and did him no damage."

Carpentier, in an interview to the Daily Mail said:

"He never hit me. When I missed him I slipped and the force of my fall brought me down. Up to that time I was winning easily and was never in the slightest trouble. I feel that I won the fight again I must be the winner."

The Sportsman describes "Gumbo" as an unbroken because he was disqualified "for an infringement of the rules, if such it could really be termed other time."

The Sportsman adds: "Nineteen officials out of 20, in the circumstances, have passed over this with a curfew."

Paper Knocks Smith
The Daily News alone among the morning papers violently attacks Carpentier. Its editor, A. G. Gardiner, the great pacifist advocate, contributes a column describing the fight as a "foul and shameful display of civilization."

Mr. Gardiner takes the incident the theme of an equally violent attack on the revival of pugilism and its royal and aristocratic supporters.

THE FIGHT BY ROUNDS

Round 2.—Carpentier took the aggressive but made no impression on Smith, each man again ducked hard

COLE WINS AT WINNIPEG MEET

Takes 6 1-2 Furlongs Dash in 1:30 1-4 and Lady Rensselaer Placed.

Winnipeg, July 17.—The exhibition track was very busy after a morning's rain, consequently the time records in yesterday's races were well below the standard set in the preceding days. The feature of the day was the 267 paces, in which six heats were run. The first heat was won by Hailstorm having tied with two heats each. McGillivray the knight with excellent judgment in the deciding heat, and won by a clear length.

Starter Homan had some difficulty in securing the paces, and fired Drive Lady 120 and Driver Wall 130 for failure to keep position. Gaiety Girl won the 224 pace, taking every heat but the first from Jim Hill, in exciting finishes. The second heat was marked by two wrecks, Garibaldi being upset in the back stretch with a lame in front of him broke, while Holy Barn turned over coming home. The track improved slightly toward the close of the program. Cummins again rode a winner in the Wheat City entry, Cole, in the 6 1/2 furlong dash. Lady Rensselaer reviled in the heavy going and won the six furlong dash for non-winners.

Handicap 4 1/2 furlongs, purse $100:

Washington, July 17.—(American) Washington got a hot race, and Cleveland won a shut-out two to nothing.

right hands from the other. Smith landed on the kidney with a right to a clinch. Carpentier landed a left on the jaw. Carpentier sent a fast right to the face. Carpentier played for the both at short range when the round ended. His lightning quickness was beginning to count.

Round 3.—Smith missed a left to the face. Carpentier hit Smith's face with a left and repeated in similar operation a moment later. Smith again missed a body blow with his right. Smith was knocked down with a right on the kidney. Smith took six seconds and was rising when the bell rang.

Round 5.—Smith disqualifying for hitting Carpentier when he was down. Carpentier slipped trying to land a body right hander. Before the Frenchman arose Smith struck him on the face. Smith was disqualified. Carpentier hit his head apparently in great pain, though it seems Smith's blow hardly touched him. The Frenchman's records took him to his corner while the crowd booed loudly.

BRONKS SWELTER IN LAST PLACE

Trimmed by Red Sox 2 to 1, With Lomis and Berger as Pitchers.

Regina, July 17.—Wet grounds prevented the afternoon game, but the teams put on a snappy game in the cool weather last evening. Although the score only reads 2 to 1, the Sox had the game fairly easily won. Larry Piper scored in the first on his double, an error and a sacrifice fly. Only two more hits were made off Berger and the Bronks never threatened except in the fifth, when error put men on second and third. Berger put on an extra sprint and fanned both Jones and Lomis. Jack Smith's hitting was the local feature. Berger contributed to his own win with a double. Rogers had eight men left on bases. Larry Piper had a busy time in center field, pulling down five high legs.

IMPOSSIBLE FOR ESKIMOS TO WIN

5 to 1 Defeat at Hands of Hatters With Kraft Found For 11 Hits.

Medicine Hat, July 17.—With men on bases yesterday Martin was unable to make a hit. The game was a fine game of ball, both teams fighting hard throughout the whole contest. Before Martin got a chance to get going in the first he walked a man and a sacrifice hit scored him. That was the only hit he allowed in five innings and the only run which the victors could score. He seemed to weaken toward the last. In the eighth, Fortier, the first man up, hit for a triple. Here Martin showed his strength by getting the next three and leaving the runner stranded on third. Dave Kraft, worked for Deacon White, until he pitched good ball in spite of being hit hard and for extra bases at times. Both pitchers were given good support and this is evidenced by the fact that 18 men did not hit the bats.

Moore Jaw, July 17.—Thanks to the Quakers' errors, Moore Jaw was able to win from Saskatoon last evening by a score of 2 to 0. It was a pitchers' battle between Kallio and Peet, and although the former had the better of the argument, he did not win the game. Kallio held Moore Jaw to two hits, but errors let the game away from him. He contributed to his own defeat by a bad pop to third, which allowed a run to score. Peet held the Quakers to five hits and they were very widely scattered. No two hits came in one inning. The Millers played a beautiful fielding game, and the outfielders guided two terrific line drives which battered on the sensational.

Moore Jaw's first run came in the third on a base on balls to Augustus. Peet out at first and Hurley's error when he dropped Harper's throw to the value of first. On the next Augustus crossed the plate before Hurley had time to recover the ball.

The other run was scored in the fifth on Peet's error, which let O'Day. The Quakers' single and Kallio's error.

The protest against Howard was based on the statement that his name was not entered in the list of competitors, that his entry had been post dated, that he had no right to run. Howard walked over the 100 yards and had one competitor in the 200.

Ottawa, July 17.—The Evening Free Press says:
"It is probable that during the next session of parliament active steps will be taken by the members to urge upon the dominion government the advisability of increasing the seasonal indemnity, which is now $2,500. The agitation will receive some support from the action of E. A. Lancaster yesterday in declining to continue as the member for Lincoln, which he has represented in the commons for 14 years, on the ground that he cannot afford it."

It will be remembered that last year a round robin was circulated among the members of parliament requesting the government to increase the seasonal indemnity of members of the house of commons and senate by $1,500, making it $4,000. The House of Commons was divided on the question, however, Premier Borden put his foot down on it and announced definitely that there would, at that time at all events, be no increase in the seasonal indemnity. The movement thus died a violent death. It will now undoubtedly be revived."

Provisional political issues were discussed by both Mr. Oliver and Mr. MacKay, chief among these being the trade question. Mr. MacKay also dealt with provincial issues. He dealt in detail with the question of roads in the Athabasca provincial electoral district, and showed an absolutely familiar with the details of road works and requirements. He announced that he would spend the remainder of the week in the district looking into the condition of the roads and the needs for further work. He touched on the law restricting the sale of furs, and said that while the law was necessary for the welfare of the district, it was not desirable that the enforcement should be unnecessarily harsh. He promised that the administration of the law would be with due regard to the immediate circumstances, and with a view of avoiding hardships as much as possible.

The meeting was crowded and the town hall was in attendance. Votes of confidence in the federal and provincial members were passed.

PRACTICAL AGRICULTURE AND HOME-MAKING TAUGHT
Five-month Sessions Open at Olds, Claresholm and Ver-million on October 27.

Tenders have been called by the public works department of the provincial government for the erection of five stock judging pavilions and additional classroom accommodation at each of the three provincial schools of agriculture at Olds, Claresholm and Vermilion. So large was the success met with by these schools during the autumn year that additional accommodation must be provided for the students seeking admission this fall.

The present stock judging room in the basement of each of the three schools will be used for classroom accommodation and a new stock judging pavilion and machinery hall, with classrooms overhead, is being added. There will be not less than 100 students in attendance at the three schools, according to present indications. It is probable that the partial crop failure in the south will decrease the attendance somewhat at the Claresholm school, but 125 students are expected. Olds will probably have 175 and Vermilion 100. Courses in both agriculture and domestic science will run for five months this fall and winter at each of the three schools. The schools open on October 27 and close on March 27, in time for the students to get back to the farm to assist in the spring work.

Comprehensive Courses.
The calendar giving the courses for the first and second year work which will be taught at the schools this fall has just been issued and shows a very comprehensive and practical course of study both for young men and young women. The work on the Agricultural course is divided into two main divisions, viz.: Agriculture and household science. The work in the former department is emphasized especially from the point of view of the practical farmer and in the latter department from the point of view of the home-maker. The course in agriculture aims to be eminently practical, embracing work in animal husbandry, field husbandry, farm mechanics. Due attention will also be given to instruction in farm management, farm bookkeeping, natural physics, chemistry, bacteriology, mathematics, and English. The aim of the school is to make practical farmers of the young men who attend its courses. While a large share of the instruction will be given by the regular staff valuable assistance will be rendered through special lecturers delivered by men prominent in their respective branches of the department of agriculture and from the University of Alberta. Although the listed subjects taught during the second year does not vary much from that in the first year the difference will be found to lie in the advanced nature of the work. The satisfactory completion of the first year's work entitles the student to enter the work of the second year; the satisfactory completion of the second year entitles the student to receive the associate diploma. The work covered during the two years, ending by the conferring of the diploma, is aimed to furnish the student with the knowledge and practical experience demanded for entrance into third year work in an agricultural college.

Practical Home-Makers.
The aim of the department of household science is to train the young women of the province to be practical home makers. The course covers a period of two sessions of five months each. While the work of both sessions is conducted on eminently practical lines aiming to secure the economic management of the home, the work of the first year is especially devoted to home problems and in the interests of those who have only one year to spare. The work of the second year is designed, in addition to the home-makers' course, to assist those who are preparing to be teachers in domestic science.

In addition to the two years' course mentioned above, a short course covering six weeks is offered in each school for those who have only a short time at their disposal. This course will be complete in itself, being devoted almost wholly to practical work. The dates for the short courses are as follows: Olds, November 9 to December 19; Claresholm, January 5 to Feb. 12; Vermilion, February 16 to March 27.
